TERRY ANN MORGAN IS APPOINTED
DEPUTY TO THE ASSISTANT GENERAL COUNSEL
IN NLRB'S DIVISION OF OPERATIONS-MANAGEMENT

National Labor Relations Board General Counsel Arthur F. Rosenfeld announced today the appointment of Terry Ann Morgan as Deputy Assistant General Counsel in the Division of Operations-Management, the office directing the work of the agency's 32 regional offices throughout the United States.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation, and it investigates and remedies unfair labor practices.

Commenting on the appointment General Counsel Rosenfeld stated:

Terry Ann Morgan has distinguished herself throughout her 15 years of dedicated service with the NLRB's Manhattan and Cleveland Regional Offices. She has consistently demonstrated superb skill and judgment in handling her assignments as a Field Attorney and Supervisory Attorney. Terry will be a welcome and valuable addition to the Division of Operations-Management.

Born in South Milwaukee, WI, Ms. Morgan received her Bachelor of Music Education from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1981, and her J.D. degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1988. After first working as a legal intern in the NLRB's Milwaukee, WI office (Region 30), she transferred to the Cleveland, OH office (Region 8) in 1988 as a Field Attorney. Her next assignment was in the NLRB office in New York City (Region 2) in 1989 and has held the position of Supervisory Attorney since 1997. Ms. Morgan and her husband John Sayah currently live in Sleepy Hollow, NY.
